

EAGEN/EHPMSG Postgraduate Course (Ohrid, Makedonia October 1st 2016)

CLINICAL DECISIONS IN DIGESTIVE DISEASES

Co-Directors: Peter Malfertheiner, Tomica Milosavljevic, Nenad Joksimovik

Structure of presentations – case based lecture:

1. Summary of the patient (presented by the young gastroenterologist)
2. The clinical problem (incidence, time trends, global, European and national epidemiology, clinical challenges)
3. Pathophysiology
4. Clinical evidence - studies, randomized, Meta-analyzes
5. Therapeutic approaches, guidelines, consensuses; adverse drug effects, other therapeutic options
6. Confusing, controversial issues, dilemmas
7. Good practice guides, accepted protocols
8. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS, interactivity – THREE questions, voting devices
9. Key messages - Recommendations - conclusions (based on the presentation of the patient)

9, 30-11

Opening session, Introductory, lectures

Chairs: P Malfertheiner, N Joksimovik, T Milosavljević

1. Introductory lecture: Decision making process in the context of guidelines

Peter Malfertheiner (Germany)

2. GORD - diagnostic procedures, algorithms, treatment and follow-up

Tomica Milosavljevic (Serbia) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

3. Barret's epithelium - optimal monitoring and treatment decisions

Theodor Rokkas (Grece) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

11, 00-11,30 Coffee breake

11, 30-13 Chairs: J Regula, M Krstic

4. Dyspepsia as a challenge in decision making process

Dan Dumitrascu (Romania) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

5. Protection of stomach mucosa – an impossible mission or a liability

Miodrag Krstic (Serbia) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

6. Blood in stool

Jaroslav Regula (Poland) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

13, 00-14, 00 Lunch

14, 00-15, 30 Chairs: Theodore Rokkas, Francesco Franceschi

7. Metabolic syndrome, NASH - a liver biopsy? Yes or no? How to diagnose and treat?

Davor Stimac (Croatia) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

8. Jaundice, fever, ascites

Tamara Alempijevic (Serbia) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

9. Refractory ascites in patient with liver cirrhosis

Nenad Joksimovik (Makedonia) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

15, 30-16, 00 Coffee break

16, 00-17, 30 Chairs: Colm O Morain, Davor Stimac,

10. The optimal choice of therapy in UC and Crohn's – when, how, how long

Colm O Morain (Ireland) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

11. Clostridium difficile infection – antibiotics, probiotics, fecal transplantation?

Francesco Franceschi (Italy) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

12. Abdominal pain at midnight - Emergency Center

Piero Portincasa (Italy) and young gastroenterologist as a case-presenter

17, 30-18, 00 Conclusions

Chairs: P Malfertheiner, N Joksimovik, T Milosavljević